Genting Highlands, 6 January 2023 - Fans of celebrated Taiwanese singer, Richie Jen will be able to see him again in another spectacular show at Arena of Stars after his phenomenal 2-day concert 3 years ago. This coming 31 March and 1 April, Jen will take the stage for two consecutive nights at Arena of Stars, Resorts World Genting for Richie Jen Miss You Concert Live in Malaysia.

The live concert is meant to mark the beginning of a new stage in his singing career. His album, "Too Softhearted", presents a wonderful and eclectic repertoire of evergreen ballads and rock songs, which come off as ditty and compelling – a hallmark of his style. Selling 26 million copies, the title track, "Too Softhearted", is seen by many as a masterpiece. Popular tracks such as, "Unknown Pleasures" and "The Sad Pacific" from the album, "Love Like Pacific Ocean" were also featured as the opening and closing theme songs of the drama series, "The Return of the Condor Heroes." Other smash hit songs include "Start Again", "I'm a Fish", "End of the World", and "Flowers Bloom in Spring".

In addition to his musical achievements, Jen has also found great fame in front of the camera. With over 50 movie roles under his belt, his filmography ranges from crime thrillers, like Man on the Edge, to romantic fantasies, like Fly Me to Polaris, and even historical epics, like Legendary Amazons. Beyond the cinema, Jen is also a regular fixture on the small screen, acting in series such as 1998's The Return Of Condor Heroes and 2011's The New Adventures of Chor Lau Heung.

Jen is certainly no stranger to Malaysia, having starred in the romantic comedy film, "Summer Holiday" which was shot in Pulau Redang, Terengganu in 2000. A popular track on the film, "Look Over Here, Girl," a collaboration with Malaysian singer, Ah Niu was ranked first in the Hit FM Top 100 Singles of the Year 1998. The singer recently appeared on a popular Chinese musical reality show called Mango TV Call Me by Fire Season 2, where he finished in the 11th position. Don't miss the chance to meet Richie Jen at his live concert on March 31 and April 1!
