

Eric Moo Brings 2026 Concert World Tour to Arena of Stars

Genting Highlands, 12 November 2025 – Prepare to relive the classics, rediscover your memories and reignite the emotions that once defined your youth. This January, the voice that defined an era returns home. Celebrated Malaysian singer-songwriter Eric Moo (巫启贤) will bring his highly anticipated Eric Moo 2026 Concert World Tour to the Arena of Stars on 24 January 2026, at 6pm.

Known affectionately as the “Love Song Master”, Eric Moo has spent over four decades shaping the sound of Mandopop with his signature emotional honesty and musical craftsmanship. This world tour marks a new chapter in his remarkable journey, one that brings together the classics fans know by heart and new renditions that reveal the depth of an artist who continues to evolve with time.

From the soul-stirring “太傻” (Too Silly) and the tender “你是我的唯一” (You Are My One and Only), to the timeless “红尘来去一场梦” (Red Dust Comes and Goes) and the heartfelt “爱那么重” (Love So Heavy), Eric’s songs have accompanied generations through love, loss, and every emotion in between. With his unique tone and heartfelt delivery, each lyric becomes a story, each note a memory rekindled.

More than a concert, this is an emotional homecoming, a heartfelt journey through music, memory, and time. It is a reunion between the artist and the audiences who have walked through life’s many seasons with his songs as their faithful companions. With his timeless voice and signature sincerity, Eric invites fans to relive the melodies that once captured their hearts and to rediscover the emotions that shaped their youth.

The Eric Moo 2026 Concert World Tour will feature a specially curated setlist, upgraded visuals and a full live band to create an immersive and emotional experience. Blending classic arrangements with fresh interpretations, the show promises a musical experience that feels both nostalgic and new, a perfect balance between remembrance and renewal.

The concert’s production will be elevated with world-class musicianship, immersive visuals, and state-of-the-art sound and lighting — all meticulously designed to capture the essence of Eric’s music. Every element, from orchestration to stage lighting, has been thoughtfully crafted to envelop audiences in emotion, transforming the evening into not just a performance, but a deeply moving musical encounter.
