

Pan Mei Chen’s “Returning Home 2.0” World Tour Celebrates Three Decades of Hits Across Generations

Genting Highlands, 19 March 2026 – Mandopop legend Pan Mei Chen (潘美辰) returns to Resorts World Genting with the next chapter of her celebrated concert journey, as the “Returning Home 2.0” World Tour takes the stage at the Arena of Stars on 25 April 2026.

Known for her distinctive voice and emotionally resonant songwriting, Pan Mei Chen remains one of the most influential figures in Mandarin pop music. Over a career spanning more than 30 years, she has built an extraordinary legacy, performing at major international stages and achieving the milestone of more than 1,000 live performances worldwide.

The “Returning Home 2.0” tour explores a deeper narrative that reflects on the meaning of home, belonging and life’s journey. At the center of the concert’s theme is a dialogue between her timeless 1989 classic “I Want a Home” (我想有个家) and her latest musical reflections on returning to where the heart truly belongs. Through this concept, the concert invites audiences to revisit cherished memories while embracing new perspectives shaped by time and experience.

Beyond its emotional storytelling, the concert promises a visually captivating experience, blends AI-driven graphics with immersive stage design to create an intimate yet dynamic atmosphere. During the 120-minute performance, Pan Mei Chen will deliver curated setlist of more than 20 songs, including beloved hits such as “I Once Loved You Deeply” (我曾用心爱着你) and “Unmeltable Ice” (拒绝融化的冰). The performance traces the evolution of her 30-year career, taking audiences on a nostalgic journey that bridges her cassette-era classics with her latest musical works.

More than just a concert, “Returning Home 2.0” represents a shared journey between artist and audience – a heartfelt reminder that music has the power to connect people across time, distance and generations to relive the songs that shaped their lives. Through music, technology and heartfelt storytelling, Pan Mei Chen invites listeners to rediscover the meaning of home — a place defined not by distance, but by the memories and emotions carried in every song.
