From now till 16 September, Malaysian heritage takes centre stage with interactive activities and community-driven initiatives at Zouk Atrium, Level 1, SkyAvenue.

Get nostalgic with Toss the Glory: Batu Seremban, where guests can put their skills to the test by tossing all five stones and catching as many as possible. Guests can join in on the fun with a minimum spend of RM269 for Genting Rewards Card members, or RM369 for non-members, in a single receipt from participating outlets throughout the resort. Each qualified receipt entitles guests to one challenge attempt.

The better the catch, the more exciting the rewards, including postcards sets and also with the first-ever Social Impact Blind Box. Created in collaboration with Komuniti Tukang Jahit, every item is 100% handmade by women tailors from underserved communities across Malaysia, shining a spotlight on Malaysian creativity and craftsmanship while giving a beloved traditional game a modern twist.

Those up for a bigger challenge can take on the Heritage Trail, an immersive journey inspired by the colourful traditions of Malaysian batik. Guided by a vibrant batik trail around Zouk Atrium, guests can explore several interactive cultural zones, each offering a different way to discover Malaysia's traditions and creativity.

From discovering local artistry and testing local knowledge to getting creative in the craft corner and photo studio zone, guests can make their way through the trail at their own pace.
