“Patti Page” of Taiwan, Tsai Chin returns to serenade fans at Resorts World Genting

Genting Highlands, 22 November 2022 - Be captivated by the grand persona and melodious, soulful voice of one of Taiwan’s greatest pop and folk singers, Tsai Chin as she returns to the Arena of Stars, Resorts World Genting this 18 February 2023 at 8:30pm.

Dubbed the “Patti Page” (in reference to the American pop-country musical legend of the 1950s) of Taiwan owing to her velvety-smooth vocals and larger-than-life stage presence, Tsai grew up on a steady diet of Mandarin and Hokkien songs in the 1950s and 1960s in the southern port city of Kaohsiung. As a college student in Taipei, she dabbled in live music, earning a reputation as a sweet-voiced folk singer.

Tsai’s singing career sky-rocketed with the release of her first album, Out of Songs in 1980 which yielded popular hits like Just Like Your Tenderness, The Last Night, Reading You and The Spirit of Your Eyes. With these tunes, she established a reputation for melancholic love songs that became iconic tunes of the 1980s and 1990s. As she matured as a singer, Tsai went on to record another 25 studio albums and maintained her popularity and fame with a long-running gig as a host on BCC, Taiwan’s largest radio station.

Best known for the 2002 megahit, The Forgotten Times from the famed Infernal Affairs film trilogy, Tsai’s superstardom has not diminished in recent years. She continues to enjoy great popularity in Taiwan, Hong Kong and Mainland China. A fun-loving diva with a magnificent voice, Tsai has been actively performing in touring musicals across Mainland China since 1998. In 2003, she adapted the song and dance drama, Love in Shanghai Night from La Traviata, in which she sang old Mandarin songs. In 2005, she performed in another musical, Running Angel adapted from the movie, Nuns Are Crazy. Tsai served as a guest performer, singing Intimate Lover, The Courtyard Deep and Forgotten Time at the 50th Golden Jack Ma Yun Awards Ceremony. In 2007, her albums, Tsai Chin Live 2007 and Golden Voice were named as the Top 10 Best-Selling Mandarin Albums of the Year at the IFPI Hong Kong Album Sales Awards.

Tsai Chin last appeared at the Arena of Stars to perform at her special concert, The Presence of a Piano is the Presence of Art in 2019. The 63-year-old songstress with a formidable stage presence and witty persona will once again charm her fans with evergreen songs and greatest hits from her five decades in the music industry this coming February.
